Health Concerns

The flu has been very aggressive this season. Parents are asked to keep their child home from school on any given day when the child: gives evidence of a fresh cold, has an elevation of temperature or has had an elevation of temperature within the last 24 hours, has a rash, has had an upset stomach or has vomited within the last 24 hours, has sore or discharging eyes or ears, has a cough that keeps your child up at night or appears to get worse when activity level increases, shows any other symptoms recognizable as illness or has been on an antibiotic for less than 24 hours. It is out of courtesy and concern for the health of your child's classmates and their families that these rules are strictly followed. Teachers will ask you to take your child home should they appear ill or have obvious symptoms of illness or contagious disease.
